

WAR! What Is It All About?

HAS the whole world gone stark mad over a very foolish and trivial question? Are swords rattling, cannon rumbling, mailed armor glistening just because Russia wanted to show her love for the little brother—Serbia? Tear aside the curtain of Europe's politics and see the grim and sinister game of chess that is being played. See upon what a slim, yet desperate, excuse the sacred lives of millions are being sacrificed. Read the history of the past one hundred years, as written by some of the greatest authorities the world has ever known, and learn the naked, shameful truth. Just to get you started as a Review of Reviews subscriber, we make you this extraordinary offer. We will give to you

FREE—"Europe at War"

A big book and over 300 pages, size 10 x 7 inches, handsomely and durably bound in cloth, containing the dramatic history of the great events leading up to the present time; over 50 important and timely special articles by experts on the different phases of the conflict; hundreds of graphic pictures, portraits, photographs, diagrams, specially drawn war maps, illuminating statistical records, copies of official documents and diplomatic messages exchanged between the powers—a clear, vivid, accurate, permanent, interesting and valuable record—a record which once seen you will not willingly be without. Europe's past and present are here dramatically pictured and presented. Hundreds of illustrations graphically tell their own stories. More fascinating than any romance, here is a history so vivid, so dramatic, so stirring, so fascinating, so realistic, so wonderfully presented, so thrillingly told that it leaves an indelible impression.

Eggs Hard as Bullets.

If less meat, shall we eat super-boiled eggs after the manner of the Albanians? It testifies to the strength of their digestions. An equal number of eggs and onions are boiled together for about three hours daily on ten successive days, the eggs being slightly pricked after each boil so that the juice of the onions thoroughly permeates them. They are, naturally, as hard as bullets at the end of this treatment; but an Albanian will bolt down a huge plateful—helped down by lashings of olive oil—and then clamor for a second helping.

Ward-Earned Money.

I was seated at the same table with a father and small boy the other morning in a dining car. The father promised the boy a nickel if he would eat all of his breakfast food. The boy ate it and collected his nickel. Later during the morning the boy became restless and was seeking amusement as best he could, when a man came through the Pullman selling candy, magazines, etc. The boy wanted his father to buy some gum. "You have a nickel," the father told him, "can't you buy some gum for yourself?" "O, that nickel is mine," he answered promptly; "I earned that."—Chicago Tribune.

Point of View.

They were standing on a busy corner of the great city. "What a hard time men have running around trying to make a little money," remarked the pessimist. "Yes," rejoined the optimist, "but look what a good time women have running around trying to spend it."
